OFFENSIVE WARNINGS TO GEN. GRANT.

It occurs to us that the true way for Senators to act concerning the tenure of office law would be to vote one way or another upon the proposition of the House to repeal it. The matter would then be done with, and the President elect and the country would know just how things stand in the premises. Instead, however, of such decisive action, Senators think to intimidate Gen. Grant by this or that proposition, slightly modifying the obnoxious act in question. It was fully understood, when the usurping and mischievous measure was passed, that it was only intended to hamper President Johnson, and that the new Executive would have the chain stricken from his limbs. At the date of its adoption we warned Representatives in Congress of the peril of putting extraordinary powers in the hands of Senators, lest they should retain them maugre all understandings. The late proposition of Senator Wilson, as well as that of Senator Edmunds, indicate no more and no less than indisposition to give Gen. Grant full executive powers.—National Intelligencer.

PETITION OF MRS. LINCOLN.—The following is a copy of the petition of Mrs. President Lincoln, asking for a pension, which was presented in the United States Senate on Monday:

To the Honorable Vice President of the United States:—SIR:—I herewith most respectfully present to the honorable Senate of the United States an application for a pension. I am a widow of a President of the United States, whose life was sacrificed in his country's service. That sad calamity has very greatly impaired my health, and by the advices of my physicians I have come to try the mineral waters, and during the winter to go to Italy. But my financial means do not permit me to take advantage of the urgent advice given me, nor can I live in a style becoming the widow of the Chief Magistrate of a great nation, although I live as economically as I can. In consideration of the great services my deeply lamented husband has rendered to the United States, and of the tearful loss I have sustained by his untimely death—his martyrdoom, may say—I respectfully submit to your honorable body this petition. Hoping that a yearly pension may be granted me, so that I may have less pecuniary care, I remain, most respectfully,

MRS. A. LINCOLN.

Frankfort, Germany.

JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE.—A letter received, dated Niagara, Ontario, January 13th, from the above named gentleman, says the Columbus Sun, of Wednesday, states: "I hope to leave Canada in a few weeks, and return to my former home." The following incident is also mentioned about his favorite and faithful colored servant:

"Thomas went with me to Cuba. He gazed on the Atlantic ocean with amazement, and was in a great terror when we launched our little boat, but his fidelity proved stronger than his fears, and he embarked with me. I succeeded in sending him back to his friends from Havana, although he wished to remain with me, and declared that if ever I returned he would find me out and live with me. The last I heard of him he was solicited to become a candidate for some Convention in Arkansas; but, after inquiring what a convention was, he declined the honor."

SENATOR ROBBINS.—As we supposed, the Committee upon Bribery and Corruption did not intend to ferret out the real criminals in the Legislature, but rather to hide them, if the evidence was likely to involve the character of any of the "faithful." The people of North Carolina are well satisfied, notwithstanding the report of this Committee, that there has been bribery and corruption within the Legislature. It is positive proof would not more fully satify them of the fact.

As it is the Investigating Committee ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject. Senator Robbins himself introduced a witness involving an indiscretion of his own, which no one acquainted with that gentleman can for one moment suppose had any criminal intent,—Wilmington Journal.

Well may "our colored brethren exclaim" "save me from my friends." An Albany correspondent says:

In the Legislature the negro again came up to-day, on a motion of Mr. Murphy, of New York, to take the resolution from the table appointing Stephen Myers an extra doorkeeper. Additional resolutions amendatory and explanatory were poured in by the Radicals, and after a little filibustering Mr. Husted, of Westchester, offered a resolution that the whole subject be laid upon the table. The ayes and noes being called on this, the Republicans voted almost unanimously in favor of squelching the whole thing. The negro question may, therefore, be considered practically settled.

The credulity of the negro was fairly exhibited in New Orleans the other day. A wag started a story that a wealthy colored woman had died and left five dollars apiece to every colored person in the city, application to be made for the same at the Presbyterian Church, on Gasquet street. The story spread like wildfire, and for seven hours, hundreds of negro men and women, of all ages, the former with their favorite clubs and the latter with their lunch baskets took up a position on Gasquet street, around the church. It was late in the day before this queer-looking assemblage dispersed.

FIRE.—Our city was visited last evening about 7 o'clock with a fire, the first that we have had in several months. The bell located the conflagration in the first ward, and on proceeding in that direction we found the house of Mr. Jas. B. Orrell, just north of Boney Bridge and corner of Fourth and Hanover streets, in flames. The engines were hard at work, but before they could get into position all hopes of saving the building were over. The efforts of the firemen were successful in confining the fire to this one building—the kitchen was saved.—Wilmington Journal.

The disappearance of a small boy in Springfield, has been accounted for by the discovery in the stomach of a hog, recently slaughtered in that city, of "thirty-six tenpenny nails, half an old file, and a suspender buckle."

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
141 Broadway, N. Y.
ASSETS OVER
$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK.....President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE.....Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D.....Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guarantics a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

LIFE INSURANCE.
ÆTNA
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

HON. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. STJOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am'nt Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,147
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Polices at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6.000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.
PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:
Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.
CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.
Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942.06.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance, and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the Conveniences of the serious places is within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles from the finest lace to the hod-blanket. For flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt with as much ease as friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—as we have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 30, 1869.

STARVE THEM OUT, DAVE!

Calls are daily made upon the Treasurer for the payment of very small sums of money, due on bonds. No one gets his money.—Dave has only to tell them, that Samson was a strong man, and Solomon a wise one, but neither could pay his debts if he didn't have the money.

The members of the Legislature don't go crying about of hunger, like the squirrels on the Littlefield-Lassiter land, but they are denied credit at the market, for a cabbage. Nor can they get their per diem.—The way to get it is to sell the N. C. Railroad; then the members will luxuriate in cabbage. Littlefield can get more to put through that project than he did to put through the Chatham Railroad bill; and rumor has it that he got $100,000, in bonds, to get through that bill, and the proof looks that way.

Now, Dave, don't make any "necessities." You plead "neccessity" for selling the the North Carolina Railroad bonds at 65, instead of 100, in which the State lost $63,000 dollars. Dave, say what you please about it, it will be put down in history as a Penitentiary transaction, notwithstanding it had the approval of the Governor. That is your only defence, Dave, necessity and the approval of the Governor.

Well Dave, dont you know the Penitentiary location had the Executive sanction, and dont you know that was a shameless swindle and fraud upon the State; and it left a spot upon Cabe Harris that all the waters, of all the oceans can't wash out!

Now, Dave, your sale at 65,000, in the estimation of some, left a spot; in the estimation of others, it left suspicion. In the estimation of others, doubt as to your capacity. In the estimation of others, it left all three, doubt, spot and suspicion.—Change your friends in Wall Street. Go to Boston, Philadelphia or Baltimore. You can get no more money through Suter & Co., of New York; they want the North Carolina Railroad. They have enough of your Bonds; they have been here talking about purchasing. A twelve hundred dollar check, drawn by Gen. Littlefield, of the Standard, in favor of a bankrupt member of the Legislature for money borrowed of Littlefield, has been traced to that House. True, there is no evidence of corruption on the part of the House. But the House seems intimate with Littlefield, the Ringmaster, and Littlefield is said to have received one hundred thousand dollars in State Bonds to get the Chatham Railroad bill through the Legislature, and to have loaned a bankrupt member twelve hundred dollars, without security, by giving a check on Suter & Co., when he had no funds there. We think, from your sale of Bonds at sixty-five, and your failure to meet the interest due 1st of Jan. last, that you will favor the sale of the North Carolina Railroad. We think that most of the locating Committee who signed the report for locating the Penitentiary, will vote to sell! Yes, including Mr. Lassiter, notwithstanding he gave as a reason for voting 3,000,000 of dollars to extend our Railroad to Tennessee, that it would then complete the line from the seashore to the mountains.

Yes, we believe he will sell 223 links of chain, and break the State's interest right in the middle of the line. We suspect him of favoring it, and we suspect most of the members who live along the line of the Raleigh & Gaston Read, of favoring it. That Road can afford to employ General Milton Littlefield, as an attorney, to put through the sale of the North Carolina Road, and give him, not $100,000 in State bonds, but $500,000. That Road will be in the Ring for the purchase. We don't say in the Ring, in an offensive sense; if we had any thing to do with the control of that Road, we would see that the Raleigh and Gaston Road should be the largest purchaser at the sale, in order to control the freights of the North Carolina Road.

The State owes Mrs. Cavalry a debt of gratitude for talking and starting up this Committee on bribery and corruption. We thank her every day. We hope it was only modest woman's aversion to appear as a witness, that caused her sudden departure from the city, after the Committee was raised. The Committee is called Swee.'s Committee, but henceforth, we shall call it, Mrs. Cavalry's Committee. And again, we thank her, for the Committee keeps the Ring Master out of the Ring.

THE UNIVERSITY.

The honor of founding the University is given by Judge Murphy to Moore and Davie. The good people of Orange, in the vicinity of Chapel Hill, gave 1,180 acres of land to the Institution. In October, 1793, the corner stone of the College was laid by Wm. R. Davie, the hero and statesman of his day.

On the 12th of February, 1795, Hinton James, of Wilmington, arrived for school, which was to be opened on the 13th. James was the first student. The Trustees and friends of learning and the State, sent their children.

The Institution is to be reconstructed. Its exercises will commence on the 3rd of March. Who shall be the first boy to arrive? It is all idle to attempt to reconstruct the University, if the Trustees and all do not assist.

If Chief Justice Pearson will call his son home from school at the North, and Mr Lassiter will call his two sons from their Northern schools and send them to the University, we will send two boys. A terrible unconstructed Democrat, who sits by as we write this, says he will send his boy. So we will have peace and harmony at the University. Come, Trustees of the University, what say you? Let us hear forthwith. In harmony let us build up the waste places and seats of learning.

$50,000 REWARD!

For Judge Alden to go Before the Committee on Bribery and Corruption.

The said Judge is not so tall or stout as Judge Cloud. He is rather on the style of Judge Jaybird Jones. When we see Billy Smith we will learn something of his intellectual calibre—Billy having travelled with him in speech-making last summer. He belongs to Governor Holden's Reconstruction Staff. All the Judges know him, they having been on the Staff last Summer, themselves. But the Judges don't wish to enter the political arena, after the presentment of the Grand Jury of Orange.

They won the victory, leading 80,000 negroes, Ashley, Pepper, Alden and Littlefield, and they have retired into winter quarters. With the Grand Jury of Orange to present, the people to scorn, and the Sentinel to shell, the Judicial portion of the Governor's Staff will be kept, for the future, in their winter quarters. Blow your horn, Billy! Put Jeff and Lyndy after the Judge. He's better game, and a meaner man than Radford Pearce, who gave Jeff and Lyndy that hard chase through Johnston County Yes, Radford Pearce is now in jail, where the Judge ought to be. He, the flying Judge, proposed to A. W. Dimmock, of New York, to deal in a million of bonds, and he could buy up a majority of the members of the General Assembly, even to repudiate the bonds. Mr. Dimmock, so stated to us, and that he had no objection to our stating it to the public. He also stated that he had heard, in New York, of $100,000 being paid to get bills through the Legislature of North Carolina. Blow your horn, Billy! and hunt in the direction of Milton Little field, Editor of the Standard, and Wall Street, and Jeff will strike the track of the Judge, and if you catch and get him before the Bribery and Corruption Committee, you get $50,000 in Confederate new issue.

THE RADICAL PARTY.

If their own papers, orators and correspondents condemn them, can we not be excused for copying a few extracts? We have enough of such matter to fill two or more columns of our paper, but this evidence being sufficient, we do not propose to introduce other witnesses:

That intensely radical sheet, Harper's Weekly, remonstrates as follows against the wrong inflicted on the people of the South in sending a swarm of rascally carpet baggers to rule over them:

"One wonders that the South does not rebel anew, when one considers the miserable vermin who have been sent down there as Government officials."

The following is from the speech of Mr Jenckes, Radical member of Congress from Rhode Island, recently delivered in Boston:

"It seems as if many of the men who occupy the government offices in New York, Washington and throughout the South, had been placed in them for the purpose of eliminating honor from the civil service. It is this want of esprit de corps that is the whole cause of much of the corruption now so fearfully prevalent in civil service. * * * Although we are raising millions of money annually, every one knows that more than $100,000,000 of the dues of the government from the whiskey tax alone do not go into the Treasury. Yet there is no way in which a single gallon of whiskey, openly distilled, can escape the knowledge of the inspectors unless they fail in their duties. A government officers inspecting a distillery can no more be deceived about the quantity of whiskey made than he can be deceived about the rising of the sun. Every Committee of Congress that has examined into the whiskey frauds has come to the conclusion that they were made with the connivance of the government officials."

Don Piatt, Republican correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, confesses the rascality pervading his party, as follows:

"All the proper people attacked Butler.—I am so sick of nice people—proper people in our party. I abhor the respectable platitudes. Possessing more real rascality than any organization ever known to humanity, we are dying of an over-dose of propriety. Our thevish fingers are covered with kid gloves, and we plunder the poor agriculturalists and rob the Treasury with a grace and refinement really beautiful."

The Connecticut Post recently uttered the following:

"If the Republican party has not learned wisdom from experience—if it proposes to go on in the wild extravagances, which we are compelled to confess have so far marked its course, then we say the sooner it is hurled from power by a cheated and outraged people, the better for the country."

Hunnicutt, in one of his latest papers, gives this general and grapic sketch of the carpet-bag tribe:

A few strangers squatted in Virgin a for the whole and sole purpose of making their living and fortunes by office-holding. These men, without means, without any established characters to recommend them to the confidence of the people, without any employment or business to help build up the State in any way; loafing around, prying into everybody's business, having none of their own; looking out for any vacancy of office which may be made; trying to shove others out that they themselves may creep in; trying to pull others down that they may go up; trying to snatch the bread out of honest men's mouths that they may fill their own greedy stomachs; trying to undermine honest men's business that they may sneak into their places; trying to crush out truth and honesty to make way for lying and robbery.

The Newbern Journal of Commerce, in referring to the report of the Committee on bribery and corruption, remarks:

The Standard makes this an occasion to once more attack Senator Sweet who was the prime mover in the matter. The reason of this shamefully false attack upon that gentleman (who, although a political opponent, we believe to be an honest man) is apparent. The Senator from Craven has been charged, in such terms, as to make the public believe that his evidence was of importance to the Committee, that one high in authority at the Standard office had absented himself, and could not be found. In this matter we believe that Mr. Sweet has had the good and honor of the State at heart, and that although he has been unable to prove anything because of the absence of an important witness he believed that there was corruption in the General Assembly, and time will show that he was correct.

[NOTE—Upon the ballot upon the final passage of the bill in relation to the Plasters Bank and Salt Works Railroad, Mr. Smith, of Alleghany, said in explanation of his vote, that this Road, if built, would do his people more good than any other in the State, but as he had no confidence in the present Railroad system, and did not believe the Road would be built to an extent that would benefit his county in proportion to the damage inflicted by the enormous additional taxation, therefore he voted no.]

THE LOUISIANA NEGROES.—We were conversing lately with an able and gallant military officer, who was on General Grant's staff in the war, and is now on duty in Louisiana, upon the conduct and condition of the negroes in that State. The account that he gave us was exceedingly unfavorable. It was painful. He says that the negroes in very many, if not in most cases, refuse to work, preferring theft and robbery, and even hunger, to labor. Planters raise crops, and are liable to lose the whole by the recreancy of the negroes when they are most wanted, and when their breaking off makes all their past labor, though liberally paid for, entirely useless. The planter beholds his rich harvests waving in the fields, but only the negroes know whether they will ever be gathered.

The account that our military friend gave us of the morally among the negroes of Louisiana was fearful. He says that loathsome diseases prevail everywhere among them, and that, having no masters to secure them medical aid, and no money to secure it for themselves, they perish miserably.—Louisville Courier 20th.

We are rejoiced to hear that citizens of Washington of high social position, without respect to party, are determined that the grand ceremony of the inauguration of the Chief Magistrate of the nation shall not go by without an observance of that most delightful part of the fete, the holding of an inauguration ball. The whole matter is in good hands, and is therefore relieved from the worrying and harrassing complication or embarrassments which had previously moved in the matter to altogether give up the idea of having the usual inauguration ball. Not to have one under the auspices would be a reflection upon the particular occasion, and a shame and disgrace to this city and to the country.—Nat. Intelligencer.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE R. R. MEETING.

The Secretary of the Meeting held here on Tuesday the 19th did not furnish us with a copy of the resolutions adopted until after the issue of the Sentinel last week. We give them below:

At a Mass Meeting of the tax payers of Forsyth county, held at the court house in Winston, on 19th January, 1869. A Nicholson, Esq., Chairman, R. Hazlip, Secretary.

The subject of the meeting was explained by the President, and a committee of three appointed to draft resolutions.

Remarks were made by several gentlemen D. H. Starbuck, M. Masten, Col. H. Marshal, Solomon Transon, J. L. Johnston and others. The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we the citizens and tax payers of Forsyth county, in mass meeting assembled at the court house in Winston, do ask our Representatives, Peter A. Wilson and John P. Vest, Esqs., to use their influence in our behalf, with both branches of the Legislature to exhonerate us from the enormous and oppressive Railroad tax of $100,000;

Resolved, That we ask the proper authorities of the county to authorize the Sheriff to postpone the collection of the Railroad tax for the present, and that the citizens of Forsyth county ask the Sheriff M. Masten, Esq., to stay his hand, or postpone the collection of the Railroad tax until the question is settled.

Resolved, That we ask the Raleigh Standard and Sentinel, Winston Sentinel and People's Press to copy the foregoing resolutions.

A TRIPLE TRAGEDY.—A murder, followed by most melancholy result, lately occurred near Columbus, Miss. A young man named Demsey was murdered by one Jake Hampton. Young Demsey was an only son, and his father on hearing of his tragical death, was so overwhelmed with grief, that he dropped dead where he stood. Another member of the family, a daughter, brave-spirited, though stricken with grief, started after the body of her brother. Returning to the house, she found that her mother was also dead of a broken heart, and dressed for burial.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, the proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to imitate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the aromatic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the proprietor were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam schnapps, in 1850; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the precautions so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have precluded the introductions and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however, only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the indorsement where his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by mendacious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after dispensing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these infamous practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the auc'reingend, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive cement.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently pal

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 30, 1869.

THE meeting of the City Commissioners, on the evening of the 27th inst., was one of business alone, if we may judge from the report in the Standard.

The salary of the Mayor is fixed at $1200 —reasonable enough—Chief of Police at $75 per month, &c. We have no complaint to make as to salaries—nor have we in the report of the Committee on the Market House, which we subjoin:

The committee appointed to report on the rebuilding of the Market House recently destroyed by fire, report that they recommend the rebuilding of the Market House in the centre of the square on which the late building stood, to extend from Fayetteville street on the West, to Wilmington street on the East 198 feet, and width of 27 feet, two stories high, with a Mayor's office on Fayetteville street, and a prisoners cell in the rear, with stalls as is shown in the plan herewith submitted, engine house and hall above on Wilmington street, with basement on both streets.

C. M. FARRIS,
J. T. BACKLAND,
STEWART ELLISON.

Which report was received and the committee discharged.

The walls of the old market are to be taken down, forthwith; the plan for the new market has been accepted, and proposals will at once be invited, for the erection of the new building.

Theo. Joseph, moved and it was ordered that a committee be appointed to memorialize the Legislature, now in session, to cede to the city of Raleigh, the lots or squares known in the plan of the city of Raleigh as Baptist Grove and Nash Square, to be appropriated as parks or gardens, &c. The committee consists of Messrs. Joseph, S. D. Harrison and Ellison.

A communication was received from the colored men of the city, informing the Board that they had formed a Fire Company. The report was received, and the company declared duly incorporated.

We are glad to see that the new Board are disposed to improve and beautify our city—there is ample room for improvement—and we hope, in their anxiety to do something, they will not lose sight of prudence, and that they will be careful to guard against extravagance. That's all, go ahead.

AN attempt, partially successful, was made Thursday night last, to rob some waggoners, encamped in the old Baptist grove. The robbers were discovered, and chase made after them by the waggoners and others, extending through the Eastern portion of the city, to its extreme limits, where the villains succeeded in eluding the grasp of their pursuers. The yell of "catch the robbers," &c., aroused the denizens, and much excitement prevailed. The addition of six new policemen, to our city force, will, we trust, prove sufficient to arrest the lawlessness now rampant.

ENCOURAGE HOME ENTERPRIZE.—We invite the attention of the reader, to the advertisement, in to-days Sentinel, of the North Carolina Mutual Home Insurance Company. This Company was chartered last December, with a capital of $500,000; and they have already commenced business under the most favorable auspicies, having $150,000 liable for losses. The sum of $20,000, in bonds, required to be deposited by the charter, with the Public Treasurer, has, also, been deposited; and the people—the property holders of the State, have now a home company, in every way reliable in which to insure. The officers of the Company, are, Maj. J. H. Foote, President; W. E. Pell, Vice President; Maj. Seaton Gales, Secretary; R. H. Battle, Esq., Treasurer.

Their terms are liberal, and the mutual plan recommends this Company to the favor of our people.

TO COME DOWN.—The house on Market Square now occupied by the Mayor,—the entire Square is to be "cleared up," and the new Market, "splitting the middle," from Fayetteville to Wilmington Streets, is to ornament the premises. The huckster shanties will all "go up."

ABOUT one of the saddest signs of the times, (writes the N. O. Crescent,) is the arrogant pretensions which the dominant party assume toward the people of the country; and the degrading servility which they exhibit toward General Grant. Sycophantic correspondents, and tondying journalists are now busily engaged in reporting Gen. Grant's opinion on this question, and surmising his wishes on that, as if his opinion and his wishes were, henceforth, to be the law for his party and the country.—These political charlatans, who clamored so loudly about the so-called usurpations of President Johnson, which were really only an attempted defense of popular rights and constitutional liberty, are now ready to recognize an irresponsible despotism in the person of the new President.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Watches, Jewelry, &c.; J. C. Palmer—too well known to require an introduction.

First Annual Mutual Home Insurance Company: Major Seaton Gales, Sec'y.

SPEECH OF MR. SEYMOUR,

In the House, in opposition to the appropriations to Railroads, &c.

Mr. Seymour said, that if these bills pass it would be a matter of indifference to him when they passed. He presumed that the House had had the matter long enough before it. What he had to say related to all these bill, and not especially to the one immediately before the House.

I have been requested, by friends, not to speak upon these measures, lest I might injure the "Consolidation bill." Believing that their passage will bring ruin upon the State credit, defeat to the party, which will hereafter be held responsible for them, and failure to the Railroad enterprise themselves, I cannot remain silent in the matter. If the members of this House were convinced of the first of these propositions, I feel sure that they would defeat the bills. There are but few here who would vote to issue bonds which they knew could not be paid. Such a vote would involve falsehood and dishonesty; nevertheless, I fear that some are wilfully closing their eyes to the future. I ask such members to patiently follow me through a few facts and figures. The old debt of the State was on the 1st of October, 1867,	$13,970,000

Additional interest to Jan. '69,	838,200
Total old debt,	$14,808,200

This is from the report of Hon. Kemp P. Battle. On the 1st day of January the State found itself unable to pay one quarters interest on this debt.

The Convention authorized an issue of bonds as follows, $3,150,000

The Legislature of 1868,	6,700,000
Old Debt,	14,808,000
Present debt authorized and mainly issued,	$24,658,000
The bills now before the Legislature authorize the further issue,	$16,200,000
So that if they pass the State debt will be (about)	$40,858,000

It is true that we own property, but not property which will bring in an income. It is claimed that the North Carolina Railroad will pay us next year $60,000. I know of no other source but taxation from which Revenue is to be obtained. I am aware that the State Treasurer in this report assumes that the Chatham and Tarboro' Winston Roads, will this year pay their interest, but know of no grounds for the assumption. He must be a sanguine man who expects that these Roads will be a source of profit this year, if ever.

My figures are within a few hundred thousands of those of the Treasurer, in his report of Nov. 20, and are drawn from the bills themselves.

Assuming the debt, after the passage of these bills, at $40,000,000, the interest required for their coupons would be (interest,) $2,400,000

Current State Expenses,	500,000
School Fund,	500,000
Total to be raised by taxation,	$3,400,000

This is two millions more than North Carolina has paid in her most prosperous days. It is three millions more than the taxation of 1867 and 1868. It is an amount which the State would sink beneath, which would be ruin to the men who imposed the taxes, and to the people who paid them, or rather whose property would be sold, in the fruitless attempt to collect them. The people would not submit, unless a military force should go forth with the tax gatherer, and that force could not be raised in North Carolina.

If the House will listen a little longer to figures which are of vital importance to every citizen, I will give another analysis of our future financial condition.

Assuming what I consider impossible, that a poll-tax should be raised of $200,000—a tax on trades, sales, incomes, &c. $500,000, there would remain to be raised from property, $2,700,000. Estimating the taxable property of the State at $250,000,000—this would require a tax of eleven millions for State purposes, or eleven times the tax the last two years.

Perhaps an estimate drawn from the actual imposition of the bills would accurately state our condition.

A. Tenn., and N. C.	1-20 of 1 pr. ct.		$2,0 0.000
Tarboro and Wil.	1-16	"	2,700,000
N. W. R. R.	1-20	"	2,000 000
Western R. R.	1-40.	"	1,000,000
Oxford Br. R. G.	1-20	"	2,000,000
W. C. & R. R.	¼	"	4,000,000
Western N. C.	1-16	"	3,000 0.0
			$16,200,000

Since these figures were made up, bills have been so amended as to give the following additional appropriations:

Tarboro and Williamston	$500 000
Plaster Bank and Salt Works	650,000
There should also be added:
University R. R.	300,000
Total by these bills	17,650,000

These are the new bills of this session.—The bills of last session re-enacted at this, probably, of about 3-16 of 1 per cent. The total tax so levied by these bills 6 3-10 millions.

The Superintendent of Public Instructions asks for $2,000,000.

Ordinary expenses $2,000,000.

And there still remains unprovided for, the interest on a debt of $18,000,000; $1,080,000 of which interest, one-half will come from. Making a total property tax of 12 3-10 millions, besides a tax on miscellaneous sums of $580,000; a rate of taxation that no State has ever paid, that would be nearly one-half the nett proceeds of every farm in North Carolina.

But this is not the worst. The estimate of the Treasurer of $250,000,000 assessable property is generally believed to be ½ too high. If these taxes should be imposed and paid, there would be at the end of the fiscal year a deficiency which have to be made up by an additional tax of four millions for 1870, making the tax for that year 76 millions. Nor is this all; the miscellaneous receipts would fall short of my estimate, and additional taxation would be required to supply this deficiency. Under such burdens, property would deteriorate and become valueless, and after, at the most, a few years of ruin, the fruitless attempt to sustain public solvency would be abandoned, and the State credit would be gone. I know that the idea is current, that poor men will not have to pay these taxes. There never was a more woful mistake. The burden of taxation, arrange it as you may, is borne by the laboring classes. This is especially true of the tax on land. The owner never gives the money to the Sheriff, but his laborers pay the tax. Heavy taxation cripples the employer, renders the time for labor lost, and thus reduces wages, while on the other hand, it increases the cost of the necessaries of life.

Internal Improvements.

I ask members here, if they believe these figures, whether they can think that the interest on this debt is to be paid; and, if they do not, whether, as honest men, they can vote for these bills? And, I further ask them to think of what goes with the State credit. Let the friends of the Western North Carolina Railroad, which will yet need millions of dollars, consider how they will complete their Road. Let them think of what answer they will make to their constituents when it is found that they have destroyed the State credit, for nothing.

There is another phase of this subject.—These appropriations are not so granted as to insure the building of Roads. They are placed in the unlimited control of gentlemen who may act rightly, but who have no check upon their actions. However wisely they may act, it does not seem to me is their power to answer the expectations of the friends of the Roads. About 20,000,000 of new bonds are to be thrown in a market in which North Carolina bonds now sell at about 60 cents. The mere number of the bonds would depreciate their price, even did not their amount impair the State's ability to pay. The gentlemen controlling the bonds can make money by speculating in State bonds; they will find it impossible to sell any large amount of them at any price. But their Roads will be under contract, and money must be raised.—The bonds can be hypothecated at 25 per cent and money raised. When the last renewal has been obtained they will go for that price. No one need think this extravagant, who is aware of the fact that the bonds of Missouri, less indebted than we shall be, but before us in resources, not long ago were selling at less than 35!

The Bonds issued to the W. N. C. R. R., would in this way sell for less than 2,000,000 which would not much more than take the Road, through the tunnel at Swannanoah Gap, and there the Road would sleep the sleep, that would know no waking in this generation at least.

Now Sir, the result of the passage of these bills is to be this, in my opinion.—Heavy taxation for one year, a small part of each of the Railroad's finished. Final and utter repudiation the next. And then a State with credit gone, with internal improvements half finished and powerless to complete them. How much wiser a course it would be for us to confine our exertions to the one Road last mentioned and complete it.

The gentleman from New Hanover, proposes to have the interest paid out of the principal for the next two years. His amendment will not effect this, it will simply, and in so far it will, diminish slightly the amount of Bonds to be issued to the Railroad's. But after this year neither State nor Railroad, will ever sell North Carolina Bonds. The interest must be paid by taxation.

If we pass these bills, I see for us but two things. The first is taxation, such as no free people have ever endured. A rate of taxation more than double what the rich State of New York has ever paid. With it comes poverty, emigration (not immigration) and ruin. The other alternative, the one which is sure, sooner, or later, to come, is repudiation. It is my belief that the same legislature which has incurred the debt, will repudiate it, but, if not, its successor will. And a cause upon which hangs the future hope of the State, will suffer for the want of wisdom of its advocates.

I have spoken in no unfriendly spirit towards these Railroads, or their advocates. I have not alluded to the means by which they are, if successful, to be carried. I have, in as plain words as I am capable of, done what I believe to be my duty, and spoken true words in defence of the interests of my State.

You sir, and I, and all here, act under a solemn trust which cannot be made more weighty by the oaths which we have taken. We have committed to us the welfare of the State and all that it contains.

Let gentlemen here as members of a State to be involved in ruin and disgrace if these bills pass, and of communities which as parts must suffer with the whole, consider and act conscientiously in this matter.—Finally, I ask them as they would be called wise men not to be guilty of an act of folly, and as honest men not to commit or permit what is dishonest. Our action now is final and I say earnestly and solemnly the fate of North Carolina depends upon it.

ASSAULT UPON A PRISONER—DANGEROUS INJURY.—Yesterday morning a negro man named Henry Larkins was brought down from Hilly Shelter for commitment to the county jail, under charge of larceny. The investigation was held at Bannerman's store about noon on Tuesday, before Christopher Rowe, Justice of the Peace, and just subsequent to its termination the prisoner received a dangerous wound on the head at the hands of one of the party present. On his arrival here his wound was dressed by Dr. Winants, and the wounded man then taken before Judge Cantwell. He deposed in effect as follows:

He had been accused of stealing a feather bed and other articles from one Richard Savage. For this he was taken before Justice Rowe for trial at Bannerman's store. During the investigation the accused asserted he could show them the man from whom he bought the articles. Several were brought before him, and among them a white man named Wiley Stokes, whom the accused repeatedly asserted to be the person that sold him the articles. This Stokes denied after a while. When the trial was over and the Magistrate had left, Stokes swore that he would kill the prisoner for his accusition. During the trial and at that time the prisoners hands were tied behind him, and Stokes approached from behind with an old sabre carried there by one of the party, and, with this weapon struck the prisoner across the head, inflicting a terrible wound. The gash thus made was about three inches long and half an inch deep, severing an artery and cutting through the skull, leaving the brain exposed. When the surgeon dressed the wound here a piece of the skull about half an inch in length was removed. Stokes was taken in custody, but soon after made his escape.

Judge Cantwell ordered that a warrant be issued for the arrest of Stokes, and directed the Sheriff to confine the wounded prisoner, Larkins, to the city hospital. The wound of this man is serious, though not positively dangerous. It is thought that he will recover, though there is danger if the artery should be reopened.—Wilmington Journal.

The Goldsboro' Messenger has received intelligence from Kinston, of a startling nature. Our readers have not forgotten the accounts we published from the Messenger, a day or two since, of acts of lawlessness perpetrated by negroes in and around Kinston. Last night's paper, now says:

From a gentleman just from Kinston, yesterday morning, we learn that the negroes have threatened to burn that town, on account of the lynching of the desperadoes a few nights ago, an account of which we published in our Monday's issue. The citizens have formed themselves into special police for their protection, and this goes to prove that a reign of terror has been organized in North Carolina. Let the citizens ferret out the ringleaders of this diabolical move and arrest them. Quiet and order can only be restored and crime suppressed, by a swift and sure punishment. It is needless to dally with brigands any longer; they seem to think that the only punishment they will receive is a temporary imprisonment. Let them be taught differently, and taught in such a manner as will convince them that law breakers must suffer for outrages committed on peaceful and law abiding citizens.

ACCUMULATED ASSETS OVER

ANNUAL INCOME,

$7,500,000.00.

Policies in Force Over 60,000.

FOR EVERY $100 OF LIABILITIES, IT HAS $154 OF ASSETS.

THIS COMPANY has proven to be the CHEAPEST, BEST AND MOST RELIABLE in the country, because it has the largest income, largest number of Policy holders, largest surplus of Assets over Liabilities, its dividends to policyholders have been larger than any other Company, and ratio of expenses less; therefore being the cheapest and best Company for the insured.

The great clamor against the assessment of premium notes, or their deduction from the policy in case of death, does not apply to the Connecticut Mutual; for, judging the future by the past, the dividends will cancel the premium notes whether the party lives or dies.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance has been doing a safe and increasing business for the last twenty-two years. It does not deem it necessary to make GRAND PROMISES of what they INTEND DOING, but will insure persons on any plan desired, and all its policies are non-forfeiting for a stated amount after two or three payments.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some, after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but ergo, LOOK OUT! RAGS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.
